Boston Feb$^{y}$ 27$^{th}$ 1776

From a charitable Disposition to relieve our fellow Creatures, from those Distresses which are incident to a long Blockade; wherein the Widow and the Orphan, the Aged and Infirm, sooner, and most severely feel the Effects of Scarcity: We, whose Names are herein after written, agree to pay into the Hands of the Reverend Doc$^{r}$ Caner, M$^{r}$ Paddock, M$^{r}$ Gore, and M$^{r}$ Gray & M$^{r}$ Spilling the several Sums set against our respective Names, to be applied to the Relief of the Necessities of such poor Persons, whose Situation and Circumstances, Age or Infirmities render them unable to obtain a Support by their Labour or Industry

Recommending to those Gentlemen, as Stewards of the Poor, to seek out such Objects of this our Charity, as do not receive Assistance from the Committee of Donations
